SERMON NOTES

The Christian church faces very real challenges in what has sometimes been called a post-Christian age. The Seventh-day Adventist Church, in particular, faces some of the same challenges, though it must be recognized that we also have our own unique concerns and trials. Both suggest that this is a most important time for us to give careful consideration to the theme of church. In this current series, we are considering some of the places where the church has gone wrong, and what we might do about it.

Seven Ideas That Ruined the Church... And Two Others That Didn't Help Any

Date	Sermon Title
January 28	The First Bad Idea: The Sphere of the Successful
February 4	The Second Bad Idea: Weeding the Garden
February 11	The Third Bad Idea: The Structure is Primary
February 18	The Fourth Bad Idea: We Can Teach but Not Learn
March 3	The Fifth Bad Idea: The One Day Church
March 10	The Sixth Bad Idea: The Priesthood of Some Believers
March 17	The Seventh Bad Idea: A Second-Class Ministry
March 24	And An Idea That Didn't Help Any: Opting Out
March 31	And Another Idea That Didn't Help Any: Achieving Last-generation Perfection

I encourage you to join us each week of this series.

God's peace,

Randy Roberts
Senior Pastor
