Loma Linda Academy Consort

The LLA string program is a comprehensive program involving students as young as four years through high school. Currently, there are over 150 students involved in weekly private lessons and group classes studying with seven string teachers. Each of the teachers holds a degree in music, and each has taken special training in teaching the Suzuki string method to children. The program has a reputation across the country for outstanding quality.

Loma Linda Academy Consort, under the direction of Karen Hoatson, is the string orchestra of Loma Linda Academy. Consort entertains audiences with a variety of music from the plaintive tune of "Gabriel's Oboe" to the powerful "Serenade" by Tchaikovsky. The 26-member group was formed in 1999 with membership being entirely ability based. Members range in age from 10 to 18 years. They have performed throughout the United States and Europe.

A special offering will be taken to benefit the 2009 Russia Tour.
