PASTOR'S PAGE

Today we begin a new sermon journey together—and what a journey it is that stretches out before us! Our focus is the Sermon on the Mount, that teaching of Jesus that is so lofty, practical and demanding. Just the other day a friend said to me, “Wow! When I read the Sermon on the Mount, I realize that I’m in bad shape!” He’s not alone. That’s the kind of standard it presents. And yet, it also presents us with great hope. I am eager to spend these months together with you in this journey, experiencing challenge and hope.

Two books are worth taking on the journey. Ellen G. White’s, Thoughts from the Mount of Blessing, and John Stott’s, The Message of the Sermon on the Mount.

See you along the way!

CHURCH AT WORSHIP

EXCELL wishes to thank the members of the University Church community for their part in the growing success of this outreach ministry. God has blessed us in many ways.

We are now mentoring/tutoring three nights a week at the ACTS office. Other offsite locations include San Bernardino one night a week, Monday afternoons at Reche Canyon elementary school, and Wednesday afternoons at Warm Springs elementary school. Mentoring the girls' group home is also doing well.

There are still children at all locations that need your help. We especially need additional tutors at the elementary schools. By volunteering just an hour and a half a week, you can help change a life and enrich your own.

EXCELL is funded by your donations, and we need your continuing financial support. These funds help provide things like educational resource material, text books and library books, journals, paper, and pencils. It also helps to cover the cost of social activities and field trips.

Please continue to support EXCELL through your time, your financial support, and your prayers.
