PASTOR'S PAGE

Welcome to Dr. Fred B. Craddock...

It is a privilege to welcome Dr. Fred Craddock to our pulpit today for our second service. Dr. Craddock is Bandy Distinguished Professor of Preaching and New Testament, Emeritus, Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, GA. He holds a Ph.D. in New Testament from Vanderbilt University. Currently, he serves as director of the Craddock Center, a program for serving the needs of the people of southern Appalachia. Dr. Craddock has written, lectured, and preached widely. It is no exaggeration to say that he has profoundly influenced the preaching of the gospel for several decades, and that he has done so across denominational lines.

On a more personal note, I have benefited, learned, and quoted from Dr. Craddock countless times. While I have heard him speak repeatedly through different forms of technology, this is my first opportunity to hear him in person. I am delighted to have him with us! Welcome, Dr. Craddock.

Easter

Remember, next weekend is Easter! Please join us for our Good Friday service on Friday evening, April 6, at 7:30 p.m. and again on Sabbath morning, April 7, for our celebration of Christ's resurrection. Then, on Sabbath afternoon, don't miss vespers with sculptor Victor Issa. This promises to be a memorable event!

Church Budget

I urge you to remember our local church budget in your giving. Your faithful commitment to the things of God is noted time and again through your giving patterns at this local church. Tithe and giving to the building program have both continued to climb. Thank you! No doubt, God blesses your giving.

We are at a time, however, when our local church budget is in rather dire need. As you might imagine, this is not always an exciting area to which to give, but it is the fund which keeps the doors open, the lights on, and many ministries functioning. Please don't forget it!

"A Dream and a Promise"

Our sermon series on Joseph will continue with the sermon, "A Dream and a Promise," on Sabbath, April 14.

Today's Study

Joshua 24:9-14 NIV

Dilys Brooks

When Balak son of Zippor, the king of Moab, prepared to fight against Israel, he sent for Balaam son of Beor to put a curse on you. But I would not listen to Balaam, so he blessed you again and again, and I delivered you out of his hand.

Then you crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The citizens of Jericho fought against you, as did also the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites and Jebusites, but I gave them into your hands. I sent the hornet ahead of you, which drove them out before you—also the two Amorite kings. You did not do it with your own sword and bow. So I gave you a land on which you did not toil and cities you did not build; and you live in them and eat from vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.

Now fear the LORD and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your forefathers worshiped beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

CHURCH AT WORSHIP

Testimony in Clay

with
Sculptor Victor Issa

A unique and memorable experience challenging the mind, the heart, and the soul

During this most unique, forty-minute delivery, Victor Issa transforms a life-size clay sculpture of the head of Jesus to depict several stages of His life. The depictions include His ministry, suffering and crucifixion, resurrection, and finally, His mighty return as King of Kings. A brief video, full narration and musical selections that accompany the sculptural program provide a powerful telling of the story of redemption in a new and unforgettable way.

The program features the dynamic music of tenor Manuel Escórcio.
