Easter and the Lord's Supper

Today we celebrate Christ's resurrection. As we do so, we also participate in the Lord's Supper. Would you linger over these brief quotations as a way of enriching this experience?

According to Paul, it was not truly the Lord's Supper unless everyone from any social status ate it together, signifying equal inclusion. Bread and wine eaten in the context of a full meal also symbolize care for the poor, for when all eat together, there are no needy.- Reta Halteman Finger

Communion is not an event in which autonomous individuals have parallel religious experiences. We do not come to Christ alone but with and through one another. The meaning of the term "priesthood of all believers" is not that we can come to God privately but that we come to him on one another's behalf: each is a priest for the other.- John Rempel

Over the centuries the church has fussed and argued over exactly how Jesus is present in the bread and wine.... I don't think propositional understanding is the main point with the sacraments, though. They speak to us in ways beyond words.- Debra Rienstra

'Twas God the word that spake it,
He took the Bread and brake it;
And what the word did make it;
That I believe, and take it.

- Attributed to Queen Elizabeth I

Tomb, thou shalt not hold Him longer;
Death is strong, but Life is stronger;
Stronger than the dark, the light;
Stronger than the wrong, the right;
Faith and Hope triumphant say,
Christ will rise on Easter Day.

- Phillips Brooks.

Christ is risen indeed!

"A Dream and a Promise"

Testimony in Clay

with
Sculptor Victor Issa

A unique and memorable experience challenging the mind, the heart, and the soul

During this most unique, forty-minute delivery, Victor Issa transforms a life-size clay sculpture of the head of Jesus to depict several stages of his life. The depictions include his ministry, suffering and crucifixion, resurrection, and finally, his mighty return as King of Kings. A brief video, full narration and musical selections that accompany the sculptural program provide a powerful telling of the story of redemption in a new and unforgettable way.

The program features the dynamic music of tenor Manuel Escórcio.
