December Building Fund Offering

I begin with a reminder of the December building fund offering. I remind you, again, that we are within reach of our goal! If we pull together; if each of us participates; if we do what we have done each of the last three years, and a little bit more; and if we each make it a matter of prayerful, thoughtful giving—we can finish the commitment this year! Let's do it together!

Jerry Davis told us time and again that this sort of goal can be reached—remember his slogan?—there is power in your generosity. Jerry was right! I am hopeful that we will pull together and make it happen this year.

Today's sermon and seminar

When was the last time you heard a worship service sermon dealing with biblical sexuality? It doesn't happen that often. As I work on this week's sermon, I understand why! It is one thing to discuss sexuality in the context of a college or university classroom; it is quite another to discuss it in a church setting with people present who are aged 2 to 102! And yet, it is a theme the Bible discusses openly. I pray that today we might be able to carry home with us some of what the Bible would have us understand about this great gift that God has given us.

A couple of important items. First, a book written by a couple who presented a seminar at our church several years ago might be of help. It is entitled, The Gift of Sex: A Guide to Sexual Fulfillment, by Clifford and Joyce Penner. And second, this afternoon's seminar, presented by Ivan Blazen and Calvin Thomsen is not to be missed!

God bless you as we continue to grow into more healthy sexual beings.
