INTRODUCTION TO THE SERMON

Adventists look for the Advent. Some of us have been waiting a long time. In fact, generations of us have been reading the “signs of the times” where we have always found new bases for declaring the imminence of our Lord’s return. We have emphasized “soon” until we wonder what it may mean. According to 2 Peter 3:12 (TNIV) believers are to “look forward to the day . . . and speed its coming.” How may we “speed” the return of our Lord? What are we to do? Yes, telling more people about the coming of Jesus is always appropriate. However, for all of our efforts at proclaiming the truth of the Advent, general recognition of the most important focus of the church, is disappointing. This is particularly true in the developed world. Could a demonstration of the gospel be more effective than a proclamation of the gospel? Does “Waiting While We Wait” hold a clue to more faithfully obeying the Great Commission?

CHURCH LIFE

The center platform floral arrangement is in appreciation and thanks to Stew Harty and all those involved in media ministry at the University Church. Your contributions to worship do not go unnoticed. Your ministry enables our services to be extended around the world.

The north platform floral arrangement is dedicated to the memory of Bertha Appleton Glanzer who died on May 19. She is survived by her daughter, Beth Ann Wear and son, Stan Appleton; five grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren. A memorial has been held. Given with love from Stan and Carol Appleton and Doug and Beth Wear.

Doug Plata will be presenting with discussion to follow. More information is available at www.medical-ministry.org.

Donations in Tithe and Offering Envelopes: Thank you for helping us process your donations more efficiently by not sealing, taping, or folding the tithe and offering envelopes.

The Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) provision excludes up to $100,000 from gross if paid directly from an IRA account directly to a charitable organization. The provision was renewed by Congress through December 31, 2011. For more information check the LLUC website or call Betsy Matthews (909) 558-4570.

Lost and Found: If you have been looking for your Bible, glasses, a set of car keys, your child’s purse or toy, be sure to stop at the Deacons’ Room in the church lobby. After 90 days, appropriate items are donated to Re:Live Thrift.

Please use the new crosswalk across Campus Street. The city has added it for our safety. We also request that consideration is given to the drivers by leaving breaks for vehicles to get through.
