CHURCH LIFE

Hospitality Dinner: We welcome out-of-town visitors to join us for lunch in Fellowship Hall following second service. Your hosts today are Carlton and Raye Lofgren, Bruce and Carol Walter, and Fran Johnson. Pastoral hosts are Shawna and Kirk Campbell.

Offering Today: Calexico Mission School. Next Week: NAD Evangelism. All loose and undesignated offerings are applied to church budget. You may give online by visiting <http://www.lluc.org>.

Floral arrangements: Sponsorships are available for October 29 and November 5. Contact the church office to make your reservation.

We regret to announce the following deaths:

Frank C. Stevens on October 4. He is survived by his wife, Elisabeth Engblom-Stevens; son, Frank; daughters, Teresa Stevens and Nancy Morton. Services were private.

Vesper Service Next Sabbath, October 29, will be the second of a two-part series titled “Out of Disappointment — Hope,” a program tracing Adventist history from 1905 until the present day and looking with hope to the Second Coming.

The Family and Children’s Ministry website has been updated. You can access these changes by visiting the LLUC website at www.lluc.org and choosing the ministries button.

Quilters meet on October 23 and 24, 9:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall West. Join in making items for LLUMC’s Neo-natal Unit and SACHS Clinic. Also share in a potluck both days. For information, call Jody Rogers at (909) 799-6941.

COMMUNITY LIFE

The Calimesa Community Concert Series presents the Southern Gospel Palmetto State Quartet from Nashville, October 22, 7:30 p.m. at the Yucaipa Christian Church 12954 Bryant St., Yucaipa.

Adventist Club Volleyball Sign-ups: Grades 4–8 begin October 23; grades 9–12 to be announced. It is sponsored by DIGS (Developing-Integrity-Goals-Skills). For information visit www.digsvolleyball.org or call Sandra at (909) 307-6128.

Loma Linda Children’s Center Open House will be held Sunday, October 23, 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. LLCC’s curriculum fosters a wide range of child development and extra activities. It is now enrolling ages three months to five years. Full-day and half-day care is available. Special rates are available for LLUC members. For information, call (909) 558-4568 or e-mail llcc@llu.edu.

Reading the Prophets as Story: Part 2, Micah: If Isaiah is point, Micah is counterpoint. Not only do their ministries overlap, they share text; and even reach opposite conclusions when prophesying the future of Jerusalem. In the process, Micah is overruled; but because of that Jeremiah’s life 100 years later is saved from an otherwise certain death! Join associate pastor Bernard Taylor in Fellowship Hall October 26, November 2, and 9, 7–8 p.m. In preparation, read the book of Micah and 2 Kings 18:1–20:21.

The Dedication and Grand Opening of the new Loma Linda Academy high school student services building will be held Sabbath, October 29, 5:00 p.m. For more information, call Mary Morgan, advancement director, at (909) 796-0161, extension 3313.

Trunk’O Treat: Children (and not so young children!), we invite you to participate in a deliciously fun afternoon, Sunday, October 30 from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the LLUC parking lot. Please come in your creative costumes (no scary ones, please). Bring a basket to collect your goodies. It is sponsored by the generational Sabbath Schools.

Christian Edition Concert will be held at Linda Valley Villa, 11075 Benton St., Loma Linda, on Sunday, October 23, 2:00 p.m. For information, call Kathleen at 909-796-7501.

“Can Life Be Merely an Accident?,” a lecture by cosmologist Robert L. Piccioni, will be held Sabbath, November 5, at 3:00 p.m., Damazo Amphitheater, at the Centennial Complex. Professor Piccioni will present what modern science knows about the conditions necessary for the existence of life and how likely it is that they could occur accidentally. Free admission. Sponsored by the School of Religion, LLU.
